3 Explanatory notes on Agenda and related procedures

3.1 Participation procedures

The following terms and conditions apply to the 14th OpenPeppol General Assembly:

1. Meeting format: The 14th General Assembly will be conducted on April 5th, 2022 entirely online, without physical presence.
2. Eligibility: All Members admitted at present and until April 1st, 2022 are eligible to participate and vote. Observers can participate but not vote.
3. Registration: In order to participate, members must send the designated Registration Form, which is distributed together with the present Invitation.
  - a. For a registration to be valid, the Registration Form must be completed and returned to ga@peppol.eu, no later than April 1st, 2022.
  - b. No member can participate and vote at the general Assembly without the submission of a Registration Form.
4. Participation: Registered participants will receive a link to access the online meeting at the scheduled time, together with instructions on how to connect, and how to raise their questions and participate in the meeting.

These practicalities will also be discussed during the Q&A session referred to below in point 4 “Further Information and Questions”.

5. How to Participate through a Valid Representative (Proxy): A member that cannot have a designated representative from within their organisation attend the General Assembly online may be validly represented by another member organisation that will act as its Proxy and vote on its behalf.

To be validly represented by a Proxy in the General Assembly, a member must complete and send to OpenPeppol the designated Proxy Delegation Form, which is distributed together with the present invitation.

For a Proxy delegation to be valid, the Proxy Delegation Form must be completed and returned to ga@peppol.eu, no later than April 1st, 2022.

4 Further Information and Questions

If Members have questions or need any clarification on the agenda items or on the related notes in this document, or are otherwise unsure of what procedures to follow, they are welcome to communicate their questions and concerns to: info@peppol.eu

An informative session will be held in order to present the candidates for MC positions, explain the registration and participation process, and answer Member questions.

This session will take place on March 29th, 2022 from 09:00 – 11:00 Brussels time. An invitation will be sent to members in due time.
